Miss Josephine Slocum went to Springfield today to attend a district meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society. Mrs. Bass, the national organizer of the Home Missionary society, who addressed the local society Monday night, also went to Springfield today to attend the meeting.

Dreamland's Biograph to-day, "Elgar Allen Poe," is one that should be seen by every person of average education. It is truly great because it is a great subject and is presented by a great company of players. For quality of pictures offered, this theatre is unsurpassed by none. Never any but clean, wholesome and thoroughly entertaining pictures and songs are allowed to be presented by the management.

It will probably be a long time before the public will have another such an opportunity to see so excellent an entertainment as has been shown at the Pavilion theatre the first part of the week. Three such clever, marvelous and enjoyable acts all on one program. To-night is the last chance for all who have not yet improved the generous offering. It is a show well worth a strenuous effort to see. Its equal will not be seen for the money in an age. People have come the second time to see the swell presentation.

The third picture of the Jean Valjean series as produced by the Edison company, entitled, "A New Life," is the feature picture at the Comique for today and to-morrow. The picture is by far the most powerful production ever made by the Edison company. It depicts the escape of Jean Valjean from the man of war, the beginning of his attachment for Cosette, the identification of Valjean by the chief of police, the search and the escape over the walls of the convent and there the escape from the convent. Valjean being united out in a coffin and narrowly escaping being buried alive; every situation is admirably acted, not the slightest detail has been omitted, as cast of great American actors under the most skilled directors marks it as one of the greatest film productions ever made.

The Clover club passed a delightful afternoon yesterday at the home of Mrs. M. L. Town on the West hill. The day was cold and windy for the ride, but hot coffee and wafers were served immediately on the arrival of the ladies and the hours were all too short for the reading of the many interesting things that Mrs. Town had prepared in connection with the topic for study, which was the postal service. After the program delicious buttermilk and apples were served, and the members took their leave, counting this one of their most enjoyable meetings.

CADETS CAPTURED AUDIENCE.

Norwich University Boys Gave a Good Exhibition Last Evening.

The young ladies' drill team held a very successful and enjoyable dance in the Woodmen's hall last evening, which was the first of a series of dances which the team will holding during the winter months. There were over 100 couples present. A pleasing feature of the evening was a drill by a picked company of officers and cadets from Norwich university under command of Major Everett Collins. The company gave four different drills, the company drill, Butt's physical, Butt's rifle, and the manual of arms. The first three were given to music by the orchestra. The company made an excellent appearance and performed the drills in almost perfect manner. They were given enthusiastic applause by the audience at the close.

The members of the company were Major Collins, Capt. Stebbins, Lieut. Reid, Lieut. Strobel, Lieut. Carwell, Lieut. Rich, Sergt. Newcomb, Sergt. Lowell, Sergt. Schakowski, Corporal Cannon, Corporal Reid, Corporal Hemenway, Corporal Ballard, and Cadets Colburn, Noel, Woodward, Parker and Magnus. Music was furnished by Gilbertson's orchestra of four pieces and the dancing was concluded at midnight.

The ladies who comprise the drill team and who proved themselves last evening to be excellent hostesses, are Miss MacCarthy, captain; Miss Annie Welch, Miss Jennie Piper, Miss Nellie Ewen, Miss Mary Ewen, Miss Mina Ewen, Miss Bella Lilley, Miss Ruth Jones, Miss Pearl Grin, Miss Annie McLeod, Miss Jessie Robinson, Miss Mulvina Hart, Miss Jessie Beaulieu, Miss Mary Beaulieu, Miss Willet, Miss Margaret Coyne, Miss Macay.

CHILD ACCUSED PRISONER.

And The Latter Covered in Terror in Court Room at Utica, N. Y.

Utica, N. Y., Oct. 20.—A number of dramatic incidents marked the first day of the trial of Theodore Rizzo for the atrocious gun murders and the climax was reached late yesterday afternoon, when little Fanny Infusino, the surviving victim of the tragedy, went upon the witness stand and after telling the horrible details of the crime rose from her chair and pointed at Rizzo as the murderer.

Rizzo was obliged to stand while the child made her accusation and he covered under the charge with blanched face and eyes bulging and trembling violently all the while that he was on his feet. According to the child's story the motive of the man in bringing the three little children to the gun was a fouler one than murder and the threats of the children to expose him caused him to shoot all three.

The father and mother of the Precocious child showed marked enmity toward the prisoner in giving their testimony and both of them threatened and cursed him in the Italian language.

Grand Lodge Session at Bethel.

The 47th annual session of the grand lodge of Vermont, L. O. G. T., which was to have been held at Bethel, on October 13 and 14, but was postponed on account of an epidemic of diphtheria in that town, will be held at Bethel, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 27 and 28, 1909. The health officer informs us that all danger of contagion is past.

Now Is the Time, Not Only to Plan, But to Carry Out Your Plans for Fall Buying

This weather brings to your mind more forcibly the need of warmer, more seasonable goods. It is now so late that you cannot put off buying Fall and Winter Goods any longer. We ask a chance to show you what we think will be for your advantage to see.

WARM UNDERWEAR

This means the kind that is warm and will wash and wear so as to give you in return your money's worth and more.

If you are to buy Union Suits, by all odds buy Munsing, for they surely have a little more real value than other kinds.

If it is single pieces, Vests, Pants or Drawers, you may do as well with others, but no better. Time that you use shopping around will be time thrown away.

Our cheap Underwear at 25c for ladies, misses and boys is the very best that can be had. We pay more than the market price to have them so.

Munsing and Bennington Underwear are no experiment, they are always the same. They will surely please you.

WINTER NIGHT ROBES

We have as a special an Outing Flannel Night Robe, full length down to the floor with two extra breadths in the skirt, and to sell at 50c.

We make a special try to get the best Outing Robe that we can to sell for $1.00.

Ladies' Knit Skirts are warm, comfortable, and much worn. We have a special purchase to sell at only 25c each. These will be shown in our window later. Ask to see them.

Knit Skirts of the best grade, made full and well at 50c.

We want to call attention again to Dr. Denton's Sleeping Garments. They may not appeal to you as to those that are using them. They are a health-saver, as well as a comfort bringer. They are a necessity wherever worn. Price 50c, medium sizes.

WINTER COATS

If you are to buy a Winter Coat for the young lady or yourself, wouldn't it be good business to see the largest lines before deciding? It's the way we do in buying what we buy to sell you. It's business, and business takes care of honest dollars.

Our Children's Garments came from Sperling & Sperling and Max Rubel & Co. This is enough to say. If our assortment is not up to what it should be, it's our fault, for surely you should be the two strongest lines in this country. Does this mean anything?

As colder weather creeps along, coats of all kinds begin to go. These we have as we say to fit and dress everyone large or small, and we have thought of the price, too. Tried to buy and make it so that all could be satisfied.

Fur coats a little later will sell and be in good demand. We think it over. There are warmth and wear in a good Fur Coat.

Warm Bedding, such as Wool Blankets and Comfortables. These we have at low prices. Blankets start at 49c and Comfortables, cotton filled, at $1.00. In our basement.
